EYFS

Reading - Comprehension

Skills	Objectives - 30 – 50 months, 40 – 60 months, Early Learning Goals	What should be seen in the classroom?
Understanding and correcting inaccuracies	To know that print carries meaning and, in English, is read from left to right and top to bottom. To understand humour, e.g. nonsense rhymes, jokes.	-Hear questions being asked to children throughout reading both during Read Write Inc. and whole class story time -Can you find the front cover? Can you find/point to the title/ blurb?
Connecting and becoming familiar with texts	To listen to stories with increasing attention and recall. To enjoy an increasing range of books. To listen to stories, accurately anticipating key events and respond to what they hear with relevant comments, questions or actions. To demonstrate understanding when talking with others about what they have read.
Non Fiction	To know that information can be relayed in the form of print. To know that information can be retrieved from books and computers.
Poetry and Performance	To listen to and join in with stories and poems, one-to-one and also in small groups. To join in with repeated refrains in rhymes and stories. To use intonation, rhythm and phrasing to make the meaning clear to others. To develop preference for forms of expression. To play cooperatively as part of a group to develop and act out a narrative. To express themselves effectively, showing awareness of listeners' needs.
Vocabulary	To build up vocabulary that reflects the breadth of their experiences. To extend vocabulary, especially by grouping and naming, exploring the meaning and sounds of new words. To use vocabulary and forms of speech that are increasingly influenced by their experiences of books.
Inference	To begin to understand 'why' and 'how' questions. To answer 'how' and 'why' questions about their experiences and in response to stories or events.	(Looking at pictures) What might they be feeling? How do you know?
Prediction	To anticipate key events and phrases in rhymes and stories. To suggest how a story might end.	What might happen at the end of the story? What might happen in the story? What might happen next?
Retrieval	To describe main story settings, events and principal characters.	What did you find out? What can you see on the front cover?
Sequence	To begin to be aware of the way stories are structured. To follow a story without pictures or props.	Can you order these parts of the story? What happened first, next....?

Question Examples

Year 1

Reading – Word reading

Skills	Objectives	What should be seen in the classroom?
Phonics and decoding	To apply phonic knowledge to decode words To speedily read all 40+ letters/groups for 40+ phonemes To read accurately by blending taught GPC To read common suffixes (-s, -es, -ing, -ed, etc.) To read multisyllabic words containing taught GPCs To read contractions and understanding use of apostrophe To read aloud phonically-decodable text	-Phonics teaching, using Read Write Inc. that is tracked to 6 weekly assessment including daily reading of red and green words -Differentiated groups, whereby any child that is struggling to keep pace with expected progress through Read Write Inc. receives 1:1 tuition, and where children above expected are being moved on. -Daily reading in Read Write Inc. with books appropriate to the phonic stage that the child is at. - Those making better than expected progress move into higher groups with Year 2 children -Lower ability children are prioritised for additional reading with an adult -Weekly Buddy Reading session -Storytelling, songs and rhymes -Daily story time
Common Exception Words/ HFW	To read Y1 common exception words*, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in words.
Fluency	To accurately read texts that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge, that do not require them to use other strategies to work out words. To reread texts to build up fluency and confidence in word reading.

 These are detailed in the word lists within the spelling appendix to the national curriculum (English Appendix 1). Teachers should refer to these to exemplify the words that pupils should be able to read as well as spell.*

Year 1

Reading - Comprehension

Skills	Objectives	What should be seen in the classroom?
Understanding and correcting inaccuracies	To check that a text makes sense to them as they read and to self- correct. To draw on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher. To explain clearly their understanding of what is read to them.	-Hear questions being asked to children throughout reading both during Read Write Inc. as part of the reading activities and whole class story time
Connecting and becoming familiar with texts	To become very familiar with key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales, retelling them and considering their particular characteristics To recognise and join in with predictable phrases participate in discussion about what is read to them, taking turns and listening to what others say
Non Fiction	To discuss features and layout.
Poetry and Performance	learning to appreciate rhymes and poems, and to recite some by heart
Question Stems
Vocabulary	discussing word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does the word.....mean in this sentence? • Find and copy a word which means • What does this word or phrase tell you about • Which word in this section do you think is the most important? Why? • Which of the words best describes the character/setting/mood etc? • Can you think of any other words the author could have used to describe this? • Why do you think.....is repeated in this section?
Inference	discussing the significance of the title and events making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done Developing inference though use of pictures	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why was.....feeling.....? • Why didhappen? • Why did..... say.....? • Can you explain why.....? • What do you think the author intended when they said.....? • How does.....make you feel?

Prediction	predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Look at the book cover/blurb –what do you think this book will be about? • What do you think will happen next? What makes you think this? • How does the choice of character or setting affect what will happen next? • What is happening? What do you think happened before? What do you think will happen after? • What do you think the last paragraph suggests? What will happen next?
Explanation		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Who is your favourite character? Why? • Why do you think all the main characters are girls in this book? • Would you like to live in this setting? Why/why not? • Is there anything you would change about this story? • Do you like this text? What do you like about it?
Retrieval	To develop their knowledge of retrieval through images.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What kind of text is this? • Who did.....? • Where did.....? • When did.....? • What happened when.....? • Why did happen? • How did.....? • How many.....? • What happened to.....?
Sequence	To retell familiar stories orally To sequence the events of a story they are familiar with	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can you number these events 1-5 in the order that they happened? • What happened after? • What was the first thing that happened in the story? • Can you summarise in a sentence the opening/middle/end of the story? • In what order do these chapter headings come in the story? • Sequence the key events in the story

Reading – Word reading

Skills	Objectives	What should be seen in the classroom?
Phonics and decoding	To secure phonic decoding until reading is fluent. To read accurately by blending, including alternative sounds for graphemes. To read multisyllabic words containing these graphemes To read common suffixes. To read exception words, noting unusual correspondences. To read most words quickly & accurately without overt sounding and blending.	-Phonics teaching, using Read Write Inc. that is tracked to 6 weekly assessment including daily reading of red and green words -Differentiated groups, whereby any child that is struggling to keep pace with expected progress through Read Write Inc. receives 1:1 tuition, and where children above expected are being moved on. -Daily reading in Read Write Inc. with books appropriate to the phonic stage that the child is at. - Those making better than expected progress and having completed Read Write Inc. move on to whole class reading including echo reading and teaching of text marking as a strategy to aid reading fluency. -Lower ability children are prioritised for additional reading with an adult -Weekly Buddy Reading session -Storytelling, songs and rhymes -Daily story time
Common Exception Words/ HFW	To read Y1 and Y2 common exception words*, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word.
Fluency	To read aloud books (closely matched to their improving phonic knowledge), sounding out unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation. To reread these books to build up fluency and confidence in word reading. To read words accurately and fluently without overt sounding and blending, e.g. at over 90 words per minute, in age-appropriate texts.

 These are detailed in the word lists within the spelling appendix to the national curriculum (English Appendix 1). Teachers should refer to these to exemplify the words that pupils should be able to read as well as spell.*

Year 2

Reading - Comprehension

Skills	Objectives	What should be seen in the classroom?
Understanding and correcting inaccuracies	To show understanding by drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher. To check that the text makes sense to them as they read and to correct inaccurate reading	-Hear questions being asked to children throughout reading both during Read Write Inc. and whole class story time - Agreed success criteria for answering questions from the different content domains being used with those no longer accessing Read Write Inc. as well as a focus on practicing SATs style questions.
Connecting and becoming familiar with texts	To become increasingly familiar with and retelling a wider range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales To recognise simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry To participate in discussion about books, poems & other works that are read to them & those that they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say
Non Fiction	To begin to understand non-fiction books that are structured in different ways
Poetry and Performance	To continue to build up a repertoire of poems learnt by heart, appreciating these and reciting some, with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear
Question Stems
Vocabulary	To discuss and clarify the meanings of words, linking new meanings to known vocabulary To discuss their favourite words and phrases	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does the word.....mean in this sentence? • Find and copy a word which means • What does this word or phrase tell you about • Which word in this section do you think is the most important? Year 3

Reading – Word reading

Skills	Objectives	What should be seen in the classroom?
Phonics and decoding	To use their phonic knowledge to decode quickly and accurately (may still need support to read longer unknown words). To apply their growing knowledge of root words and prefixes, including in-, im-, il-, ir-, dis-, mis-, un-, re-, sub-, inter-, super-, anti- and auto- to begin to read aloud. To apply their growing knowledge of root words and suffixes/word endings, including -ation, -ly, -ous, -ture, -sure, -sion, -tion, -ssion and -cian, to begin to read aloud.	-Children who did not pass the re-take in Y2 of Phonics screening to still access Read Write Inc. -Differentiated whole class reading lessons 30 minutes 4 times per week following the reading planning sequence including echo reading and teaching of text marking as a strategy to aid reading fluency -Lower ability children are prioritised for additional reading with an adult -Weekly Buddy Reading session
Common Exception Words	To read Y3/4 common exception words*
Fluency	To read with appropriate prosody to aid comprehension and for reading aloud.

 These are detailed in the word lists within the spelling appendix to the national curriculum (English Appendix 1). Teachers should refer to these to exemplify the words that pupils should be able to read as well as spell.*

Year 3

Reading - Comprehension

Skills	Objectives	What should be seen in the classroom?
Understanding	To check that the text makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and explaining the meaning of words in context To ask questions to improve their understanding of a text To identify main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph and summarising these	-Differentiated whole class reading lessons 30 minutes 4 times per week following the reading planning sequence including echo reading and teaching of text marking as a strategy to aid reading fluency - Children using agreed success criteria bookmarks and posters when answering questions - Discussions about characters and themes
Connecting and becoming familiar with texts	To check that the text makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and explaining the meaning of words in context To ask questions to improve their understanding of a text To increase their familiarity with a wide range of books, including fairy stories, myths and legends, and retelling some of these orally To identify themes and conventions in a wide range of books To listen to and discuss a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks To read books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes To participate in discussion about both books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say
Non Fiction	To retrieve and record information from non-fiction
Poetry and Performance	To prepare poems and play scripts to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone, volume and action To recognise some different forms of poetry
Vocabulary	To use dictionaries to check the meaning of words that they have read	Question Stems <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What do the words and suggest about the character, setting and mood? • Which word tells you that....? • Which keyword tells you about the character/setting/mood? • Find one word in the text which means..... • Find and highlight the word that is closest in meaning to..... • Find a word or phrase which shows/suggests that.....
